

James' mother died when he was five. After several very difficult years, he and his brother went into foster care and then experienced multiple foster care placements before they were even teenagers. Eventually, both James and his brother were placed at a Boys Ranch where they spent the rest of their teenage years. He shares with us about how he dreamed of having a family that he could be close to and enjoy life's experiences with. Tragically, James' older brother was killed in a car accident at the age of 19 leaving James without the only person who had shared his difficult life experiences. James' story didn't end there. He ended up being adopted by a special family and now has the family he always dreamed of having. Today, he is a faithful husband and father and has excelled greatly in his career. James is another of our true script flippers.

I Wouldn't Change It